

3-21-1842

Receipt, 21 March 1842

Author Unknown

Follow this and additional works at: https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aldrichcorr_b

Part of the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation

Unknown, Author, "Receipt, 21 March 1842" (1842). Personal and Business Correspondence, 1841-1850 (Series 1.2). 47.
https://egrove.olemiss.edu/aldrichcorr_b/47

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Aldrich Collection at eGrove. It has been accepted for inclusion in Personal and Business Correspondence, 1841-1850 (Series 1.2) by an authorized administrator of eGrove. For more information, please contact egrove@olemiss.edu.

Pension Office,

October 15. 1840.

Madam,

As it is not usual for persons to send papers or letters to this office, who are unable to sign their names, I have to request that it may be stated by whom the letter of the 29th Ult^o. was written to which you made your mark, and by whom the papers in support of your claim to a pension were enclosed and directed to this office.

I am, very respectfully,
Yours Ob^d. Serv^t.

J. L. Edwards

Mrs. Amelia Treadwell,
Lamar, Mississippi.